Feed My Starving Children MobilePack

Friends and Family Sponsorship

This year’s event will provide over 200,000 meals for starving children around the world. It will cost Lakeshore $44,000. Members and attenders support of Making Waves is what funds this event.

This year we would also like everyone to take ask others (friends and family) to sponsor you for this event. If each person were able to get $25 in sponsorships, that would provide approximately $25,000 toward the event. It would also give you an opportunity to ask them to participate in the packing of the meals.

Below is a signup form that you can use for sponsorships and for participation.
